MoH COVID-19 updates as of Monday, March 30th 2020

- 8 new cases reported bringing to a total of 50 the confirmed cases as of March,30th 2020. (1 from mass testing of 172 persons from a total of 2050 people in mandatory quarantine, 6 from testing of 42 out of 88 close contact persons and 1 from Aga Khan hospital.

- The 8 reported cases spread in Kitui (1) Nairobi (6) Mombasa (1).

- Noted that virus is now spreading through community transmission (disease is no longer imported from outside)

- Bodaboda riders directed to carry only one passenger. Both rider and passenger wear masks for protection. Police to enforce the directive.

- Nairobians discouraged from travelling upcountry during this period to minimize exposure of the elderly population to COVID-19.

- MoH modelling projects 1,000 cases by 1st week of April, 5,000 by mid-April and potentially 10,000 by 30th April.

- Employers to ensure release their employees from work places by 4.00 p.m. to enable making of necessary travel arrangements back home before the 7.p.m curfew.

MoH COVID-19 updates as of Tuesday, March 31st 2020.

- 9 new cases confirmed bringing the total number of those who have tested positive of the corona virus disease in the country to 59.

- The 9 new cases are from analysis of 234 samples. Contact tracing on-going. 1668 close contacts of confirmed cases being monitored.

- Identification of schools to be used as isolation centres underway. Kenyatta University Teaching, Research and Referral Hospital being equipped as an isolation facility.

- Government hiring 1,000 extra health workers to boost capacity.