MoH COVID-19 updates as of 1st April 2020.

- 22 new cases reported bringing new total of confirmed COVID-19 cases in Kenya to 81. They comprise 18 Kenyans, 2 Pakistanis and 2 Cameroonian. Of these new cases, 13 are males, 9 are females, between ages 23 to 71 years.
- 21 out of the 22 new cases were already in quarantine. The other one case was received from Mombasa Hospital. 969 close contacts of confirmed cases being traced. Out of 1,675 being monitored, 706 have been discharged.
- New cases by residence: Mombasa 7, Kiambu 2, Kakamega 1, Kilifi 1, Machakos 1, Muranga 1, Nyamira 1, Nairobi 1.
- 2 full recoveries reported bringing to a total of 3.
- Health workers in direct contact with COVID-19 patients assured of provision of highest standard level protection gears. Medic who tested positive for Covid-19 is responding well to treatment.
- Kenyans should prepare for stricter measures from government.
- Kenya to start local manufacture of personal protective equipment (PPEs) to address the current global shortage.

MoH COVID-19 updates as of April 2nd 2020:

- 29 New cases reported from 662 samples tested: (28 Kenyans, 1 Congolese; (13 males, 16 females) bringing the total number of confirmed cases as of this date to 110. Ages range from 16 to 64. 23 of new cases were in quarantine, 6 from suspected cases in isolation.
- 29 more people placed into isolation and contact tracing commences.
- 2 patients succumb.
- Local production of masks, PPEs begins
- 5,000 health workers to be hired in 7 days
- CS Kagwe warns that cases may rise exponentially.
- All tuk tuk, matatu drivers and passengers directed to wear masks henceforth.
- Kenyans urged to continue upholding appropriate hygiene measures.